

A word cloud featuring various terms related to community support and economic development in Puerto Rico. The words are arranged in a dense, overlapping manner, with some terms appearing more prominently than others. The color palette is a soft, muted green, and the background is a light, textured grey.

puerto ricos
insurance program
grant program
help ensure
rural communities
affordable housing
puerto rico
rural america
urban development
foster care
block grant
natural disasters
rural areas
pilot program
local communities
development block
much needed
first responders
national association
community development
local officials
economic development
emergency funding
bipartisan legislation
additional funding