

A word cloud featuring various terms related to national security, technology, and government administration. The words are arranged in a roughly rectangular shape, with some terms oriented vertically on the left and right sides. The font is a clean, sans-serif typeface, and the colors range from light gray to black, with larger words being darker.

Words included in the word cloud:

- determine whether
- classified information
- security interests
- commerce department
- hold closed
- security act
- computer systems
- information technology
- export administration
- intelligence community
- reporting requirements
- general counsel
- next century
- high tech
- government agencies
- intelligence authorization
- administration act
- central intelligence
- intelligence matters
- export controls
- high technology
- export control
- general accounting
- general
- inspector general
- national security