

A word cloud visualization featuring various terms related to the federal government and public sector. The words are arranged in a circular pattern around a central point. The largest and most prominent words are 'federal' and 'government', which are positioned in the center. Other large words include 'private sector', 'taxpayer dollars', 'taxpayers money', 'taxpayer money', 'tax dollars', 'postmaster general', 'post offices', 'local governments', 'federal employees', 'federal workforce', 'health benefits', 'government accountability', 'federal funds', 'waste fraud', 'federal workers', 'federal level', 'postal services', 'native american', 'federal agency', 'retirement system', 'public sector', and 'state governments'. The words are in various shades of gray and black, with some appearing in a lighter font weight than others. The overall layout is circular, with the words radiating outwards from the center.

health benefits

federal workforce

federal employees

taxpayers money

government accountability

public sector

taxpayer dollars

private sector

taxpayer money

waste fraud

federal government

tax dollars

postmaster general

post offices

native american

federal workers

federal level

postal services

federal agency

local governments

retirement system

public sector

state governments

federal agencies

federal governments